KEY TAKEAWAYS

What the numbers are telling us

Power law, not bell curve.

Half of all revenue sits with just 10 companies out of 1,000 — the median startup earns $282 in MRR.

AI is the default category now.

More than 1 in 4 categorized startups build with AI at the core — 3× the next-largest category.

The US still writes the biggest checks.

56% of tracked MRR is American, even though founders are shipping from 65 countries.

A quarter of the map is for sale.

262 startups are listed at a median 2.3× revenue — real acquisition comps, not theory.
