

The Startup Blueprint

A practical guide to building a startup people will actually pay for.

The Wrong Question

- Most founders ask: "What should I build?"
- The better question: "What are customers already willing to pay for?"

Demand Beats Trends

AI

Most crowded (20% of all startups)

Sales

Median MRR: $2,153

Marketing

Median MRR: $1,586

Education

Median MRR: $2,142

Key Takeaway: Solve problems in underserved markets, not crowded ones.

Revenue Proximity Matters

Sales Software

Median MRR: $2,153

Productivity Apps

Median MRR: $42

📌 Key Takeaway: Products that directly impact customer revenue command premium pricing.

B2B Fundamentals

B2B

Median MRR: $1,036

B2C

Median MRR: $181

B2B earns 5.7x more recurring revenue than B2C.

Higher customer willingness to pay

Greater lifetime value per customer

Superior retention rates

Key Takeaway: When choosing your market, B2B offers a clearer path to sustainable revenue.

Make your revenue predictable.

MRR (Monthly Recurring Revenue)

📌 Key Takeaway: Predictable income makes businesses easier to grow.

Pricing Power

ARPU (Average Revenue Per Customer)

Top performers earn 250x more per customer through strategic pricing.

📌 Key Takeaway: Optimize pricing before scaling customer acquisition.

Monetization Strategy

Free

Freemium

Paid

Paid-first models generate higher revenue than free-dependent strategies.

📌 Key Takeaway: Free should be a strategic tool, not your primary monetization model.

SECTION 4 — REACHING CUSTOMERS

Build locally. Sell globally.

Higher-paying markets generate significantly stronger recurring revenue

📌 Key Takeaway: Your location doesn't have to limit your customer base.

Organic Discovery

SEO = Making your website easier to find on Google.

Google visibility generates more revenue than social media presence.

Domain authority is the strongest revenue predictor in the data.

📌 Key Takeaway: Invest in SEO and content as core growth infrastructure.

SECTION 5 — UNDERSTANDING GROWTH

Growth Reality

Median 30-day growth is 0% across all company sizes.

1 in 4 startups experiences revenue decline—yet many succeed.

📌 Key Takeaway: Sustainable growth requires consistency, not viral moments.

Don't compare yourself to outliers.

A tiny percentage of companies generated almost half of all revenue

📌 Key Takeaway: Measure progress against your own stage—not exceptional companies.

SECTION 6 — BUILDING LONG-TERM VALUE

Exit Opportunities

26% of startups are actively acquired or for sale. Typical exit: $1,000+ MRR at 2–3x annual revenue.

📌 Key Takeaway: Building a profitable business is a viable exit strategy.

The Principle

Exceptional startups aren't built on exceptional ideas. They're built on exceptional decision-making.

The quality of the company is determined by the quality of its decisions.

Start with customer problems, not product ideas.

Price for value, not for adoption.

Build for sustainability, not for hype.
