☆ TOP PICK

Stan: The Market Leader

Ranked #1 on TrustMRR

$3.57M MRR — the highest verified recurring revenue on the entire platform

Mission-Driven Platform

Enables people to make a living and work for themselves — a category with structural tailwinds

Scale Potential

Demonstrates what category dominance looks like when a platform solves a real economic problem

Conductor: Enterprise API Play

Why Conductor Stands Out

Conductor delivers a best-in-class QuickBooks Desktop & Enterprise API, serving a deeply underserved niche in the enterprise accounting integration space.

- 180 active subscriptions with virtually zero churn
- Enterprise customers including Ramp—a strong signal of product-market fit
- Consistent 7% month-over-month growth trajectory
- Projected to reach $500K ARR by end of 2026

📄 Low churn + enterprise contracts = highly predictable, compounding revenue.

Evaluation Framework

Revenue Stability

Look for consistent month-over-month growth or flat revenue—avoid erratic patterns

Margin Profile

Prioritize businesses with 30%+ profit margins to ensure post-acquisition sustainability

Customer Concentration

A diversified customer base significantly reduces churn risk and acquisition vulnerability

Founder Engagement

Active founders indicate ongoing support and smoother knowledge transfer post-acquisition

Growth Opportunities Post-Acquisition

Market Expansion

Many startups operate in single geographies—untapped international markets offer immediate upside

Product Enhancement

AI integration, feature expansion, and automation improvements can dramatically increase value

Pricing Optimization

Tier restructuring and upsell strategies can unlock significant revenue without new customer acquisition

Cross-Selling

Bundle complementary products to maximize lifetime value from existing customer bases

Investment Recommendation
